

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT STOPS when you step up.

Here are some ways you can intervene:

DISTRACT attention long enough for someone to escape a risky situation.

DELEGATE. Seek help from someone with power to defuse the situation.

Take DIRECT action in the moment to prevent harm if your gut says so.

IT
ENDS
HERE.

Bystander tips: itendshere.umn.edu

Resources for support, reporting, and safety

Aurora Center for Advocacy & Education:

612-626-9111 (24-hr), text “TALK” to 612-615-8911, aurora.umn.edu

Sexual Health Awareness and Disease Education:

612-625-5917, boynton.umn.edu/shade

Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action:

612-624-9547, diversity.umn.edu/eoaa/home

University of Minnesota Police Department: 612-624-COPS

(nonemergency) publicsafety.umn.edu/sexualassault

University Student Legal Services: 612-624-1001, usls.umn.edu

Walk Service: 612-624-WALK, publicsafety.umn.edu/home/security

Gopher Chauffeur:

612-388-6911, boynton.umn.edu/gopher-chauffeur